

Instructions on Submitting a Request to Block Adverse Information for Victims of Human Trafficking

At SRA Screening, we recognize the challenges faced by survivors of human trafficking and are committed to supporting them in securing a fresh start. If you need to request the removal of adverse items from your consumer report that resulted from trafficking, please follow the steps below.

How to Submit Your Request

To begin the process, please provide the following:

1. Proof of Identity

To verify your identity, we require appropriate documentation, which may include:

- Full name (First, Middle, Last)
- Any previously used names
- Current and/or recent full address (including street number, apartment number, city, state, and zip code)
- Social Security Number
- Date of Birth
- Additional proof of identity, if necessary (e.g., a government-issued ID, utility bill, or other verifiable documents)

2. Documentation Confirming Victim Status

To process your request, we need verification that you have been identified as a victim of trafficking. This determination can be made by:

- A Federal, State, or Tribal government agency
- A court of law (including certain court filings)
- A recognized human trafficking task force, non-governmental organization, or victim service provider authorized by a government entity
- A self-attestation signed or certified by one of the above entities

3. Identifying Adverse Information to be Blocked

Please identify in the information that you are requesting to block.
